REGISTER HERE: http://www.udel.edu/4Hpartnership

A weekend conference for teams of 2-4 youth and an adult volunteer/staff member from the Northeast Region. Get the latest information on healthy living and take back ideas to your community for projects to improve the health of your school and community. The conference will include workshops, guest speakers, a dance, T-shirt, great food and much more. All of this in a setting on the Rehoboth Beach Boardwalk!

This opportunity is available for youth ages 13-19 who are interested in making a difference in their communities. Youth can participate individually or as a team of up to four delegates. An adult is required to attend with each team.

Registration fees include: 2 nights accommodations, 2 breakfast, 1 lunch, conference t-shirt, welcome bag and more!

- Adult single: $360
- Adult/Youth double: $260
- Adult/Youth triple: $235
- Adult/Youth quad: $225
- Saturday Only: $100

Featured guest for the weekend is Haile Thomas, Founder & CEO of the Happy Organization. Haile is 16 years old, a youth health activist, motivational speaker, teen vegan chef and youngest Certified Health Coach trained at the Institute for Integrative Nutrition.

HAPPY (Healthy Active Positive Purposeful Youth) was established to address the need for free and/or low cost nutrition and culinary education for young people in underserved areas and at-risk communities.

At the 2017 YAP Conference Haile will be sharing her story, offering a workshop and doing a live cooking demonstration.
