Marvelous Monday

Not even the detour could stop campers from lining up at the Camp Barnes gate. While the bus was yet nowhere in sight, State 4-H Camp had begun! As campers arrived and settled into their cabins, the heart and spirit of camp came alive. After a lunch of chicken patties and French fries, campers were informed on cabin rules and then headed to orientation to be briefed on more camp rules. After all that business was taken care of, campers had fun unscrambling words, such as Brigid, running man, Nova Scotia, snapchat, basalisk, and pollen. After great skits, campers headed off to their first people group meeting followed by free recreation, where campers enjoyed the pool, waterfront, and a volleyball game. Hungry campers then came to a delicious dinner of meatball sandwiches and a healthy salad. Afterwards, the evening began to wind down with a second people group meeting, reflections and flag lowering, and canteen. Campers then headed down to council circle where Voices and Echoes were announced. The bar was set high for the week to come! After council circle campers retreated to cabins, teeth brushing and bed.

Toasty Tuesday

As the siren sounded early in the morning, campers ran for the showers. After warm showers campers head back to clean their cabins and prepare for the day ahead. Their first camp breakfast consisted of piggle stick and yogurt. After breakfast campers headed out for AM Excitement—yoga—to get energized. After yoga, campers went to their classes which consisted of archery, ice cream making, outdoor cooking, feet on fire, and animal science...just to name a few. Next, campers went to assembly to sing songs, hear cabin check, and receive mail. After lunch, campers welcomed a quick rest period after being outside all morning, followed by more outside fun and afternoon assembly! Traditionally, Tuesday is first-year camper night. Voices and Echoes help prepare these first-year campers for the night ahead at council circle. After some intense games of volleyball, campers had dinner, people group meetings, evening preparations and reflections. Canteen went by fast followed by a game of “Ride that Pony.” Campers then headed off to council circle for another great night!

“Today’s special moments are tomorrow’s memories.”

Wonderful Wednesday

With an easy-starting morning, campers took showers, did cabin duties and ate breakfast. People groups did a great job performing their different duties, which included dining hall, bathhouse, council circle, and grounds. AM Excitement focused on dancing, getting everyone ready for tonight’s dance and dusting off the counselor’s dance moves. First and second classes flew by fast, and then everyone was off to AM Assembly for mail call and to sing songs. After lunch, campers assembled for people group and camp pictures—no beauty rest today. Voices and Echoes went to people group meetings ready to plan the night’s party ahead. Free recreation started with some kayaking, pool time, kan jam and volleyball. Evening preparations and dinner went by fast with ideas flying for plans for the party. The theme this year was “Camp Firsts!” Turtles did first dance memories. T-birds did first council circle. Moon & Stars did first day at camp. Bears did first camp crush. All groups had the camp laughing, and while the fun was not over yet, we headed off to the cabins to change and clear clothing off the line before heading to dance the night away!

Terrific Thursday

After a slow start and no one running to the showers, campers enjoyed a breakfast of delicious cheese omelets. During AM Excitement counselors tried to get campers awake and ready for the day ahead by doing stretches and yoga. Off to classes, campers were now energized. AM assembly was filled with songs, personal skits and cabin check. After lunch campers welcomed a much-needed, extended rest period as they were starting to get tired. PM assembly consisted of a relay race to see which people group could work together the best. Afterwards, campers met with their people groups to go over songs, yells, skits, a challenge and talent. With anticipation, the last day of volleyball started. Would the Turtles go 3-0 for another year with the Bears 0-3? After a couple of tough games, everyone came out friends! Quick showers and off to dinner the campers went. Another people meeting, then campers sprayed down with bug spray in preparation for council circle. Voices and Echoes switched headbands and had to perform a skit. The evening progressed with songs, skits, yells and people group talents. It was a quiet walk back to cabins where campers fell asleep fast.

Fantastic Friday

As campers woke up to music and not a siren, the last full day of camp had begun. With lots of fun still ahead, campers did their morning routine then headed to breakfast. People group duties and AM excitement moved slowly, but campers hurried through their first and second classes to finish up their projects. AM assembly was next where campers got their final packages from loved ones and friends, and counselors won best bed for the cabin checks. After lunch, campers made their way to their cabins for a much-needed, extended rest period. People group meetings went by quickly in anticipation of the Voice and Echo vs Big Feet volleyball game that was going to be a good one. Campers were thrilled that the Voices and Echoes came out on top for the first time in six years. A turkey dinner with mashed potatoes, gravy and rolls was everyone’s favorite meal. Campers then strolled to the river front and to take pictures. After the second people group meeting, everyone was ready to get High Council rolling. As people groups lined up to head down, emotions started to run high and tears flowed. After council circle, a slideshow of the week began and afterwards, campers soon headed off to bed.

Raising & Lowering the Flag

The flag should be raised briskly and lowered slowly and ceremoniously. When the flag is lowered, no part of it should touch the ground or any other object. To store the flag it should be folded neatly and ceremoniously. Ordinarily it should be displayed only between sunrise and sunset. It should be illuminated if displayed at night. The flag of the United States of America is saluted as it is hoisted and lowered. The salute is held until the flag is unsnapped from the halyard or through the last note of music, whichever is the longest.

Flag Facts

The 50 stars on the flag represent the 50 states of the United States of America, and the 13 stripes represent the 13 British colonies that declared independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain, and became the first states in the US. When Alaska and Hawaii became states 49 and 50, President Eisenhower received thousands of ideas for an updated flag. Almost all of them were of a 50-star flag, including one from Robert G. Heft, a 17-year old student at Lancaster (Ohio) High, who created the design for a class project. He was one of three to submit the version that was accepted and remains in use today. Robert got a B- on his project.

I, Alex Swan, hereby bequeath the following:

To Colleen: the power to write songs and yells, and make people laugh about your own mistakes.

To Ricky: the ability to get under Colleen's skin with comments and making fun of her!

I leave the group with the responsibility to help Colleen with songs, skits, and yells. To be the best that you can possibly be as we are the TURTLES! Keep kicking butt at Volleyball!

MOON & STARS

Voice Bio: Shannon Bradley

On a majestic morning at 8:44 a.m., a young Shannon Bradley was born. Skipping through life growing into an ambitious young woman, later finding her way through the legendary Camp Barnes. Striving to be the Voice of the beloved moon and stars and later achieving the goal. Never being happier, she leaves knowing she was Voice along side the best Echo and other fellow Voices and Echoes.

Echo Bio: Andrew Shaffer

On the prestigious morning of October 27th, 1999, Andrew Hudson Shaffer was welcomed into the world. While growing up in a house with two brothers, Andrew quickly learned how to fight and eat like a champion. He enjoys long walks on the beach, quiet Sunday mornings, and the occasional hot pocket. Andrew's role models are Mike Tyson, Mark Wahlberg, and Queen Latifah. Andrew loves camp and being with his friends but he prefers Scooby Doo, fruit snacks and a little more. He'll be back for camp next year to finish his career as a camper.
