Marvelous Monday

On Monday, the hot sun beat down on the campers as they strolled into camp. As the campers waited for lunch, they reunited with friends and got to know each other. For lunch, chicken patty sandwiches and smiley fries were served. During rest period, tips and tricks for the first-year campers were shared. Later, each cabin was challenged to complete a word scramble skit and activity to help the campers learn the rules. At the first people group meetings, laughs were heard and planning for the council circle began. A little later, meatball subs were served for dinner. With plenty of spills you could hear our clapping over the Muddy Miller! Finalizations for open council circle were made during the second people meetings. When heading to reflections the sky had opened, redirecting us to the pavilion. Then, due to the storm, council circle was held inside the mess hall. At council circle, select campers rose into headband positions; however, they had to prove they could lead their people group. Other leaders were chosen to be host and hostesses. After council circle, campers returned to their cabins and fell asleep to the pitter-pat of rain.

Toasty Tuesday

On Tuesday morning, the siren went off and campers sprinted to the bathhouse for showers. After completing cabin duties, campers indulged a pizza breakfast and stretched their way to the white top for some morning yoga. Excited to start the day, campers made their way to their first and second classes. At the end of class two, campers sang for mail; and at cabin check, cabin 10 received best cabin in camp! After a cheesesteak lunch and a much-needed nap, everyone headed to the white top for a relay race around camp. Soon after volleyball games commenced, there was a first rec winner, the Turtles. Following behind in second rec, the Thunderbirds won against the Moon & Stars. After cleaning up, dinner was served where shrimp poppers and mac and cheese were devoured. At the second people meeting songs, skits and yells were cleaned up. Everyone then watched the calm water during reflections and flag lowering. The day ended with a beautiful sunset and first-year night during council circle.

Wonderful Wednesday

A chilly and damp morning woke our campers, who immediately got busy with cabin duties. We filled our stomachs at breakfast with delicious breakfast sandwiches. To prepare for the dance, campers learned Trouble and Copperhead Road during AM Excitement. Campers enjoyed making doughnuts in outdoor cooking and line dancing in Nutrition and Fitness. We gathered at assembly point to see what mail had come in for Wednesday. Soon lunch rolled around bringing cheese pizza and big smiles. Rest period was used to get ready for group pictures, which were taken during PM Assembly. Volleyball, four square and kickball were played during first and second recreation. The smell of grilled chicken, baked beans, and pasta salad filled the air for dinner. A new spirit check was created and shared before dinner. A sweet treat was served after dinner by the Echoes. Skits from the people groups featured: Beauty and the Beast 2, Fast and Furious 79, Titanic 2, and Elf Home for the Holidays. At the dance, the multiplication dance started with Sophia Noon and Evan Knutsen. Reflections were lead by the Big Feet. The rain then put the campers to sleep like a lullaby.

Terrific Thursday

Thursday morning campers woke up and proceeded to a breakfast of omelets and hash browns. Prior to that, the people groups completed their duties and did an excellent job. Everyone then participated in a AM activity of yoga. Following that, campers went to their daily classes. When classes were over, campers gathered at Assembly Point for cabin check and mail. Lunch followed, where everyone enjoyed turkey and cheese sandwiches. Following rest period, all the campers took on the Rope Course with their people groups. In first rec, the Turtle group defeated the Thunderbirds in two games. Second rec led to the Bears defeating the Moon & Stars in two games. For dinner, the campers had delicious tacos with rice. Later on in the night, the day was concluded with an excellent council circle.
